THIERRY MARX: THE CHEF WHO EMBODIES AND SHARES MY COMMITMENT

As a committed culinary craftsman, Thierry Marx believes in cooking that transmits values. He believes that my cuisine, brasserie cuisine, has a role to play in the 21st century: transmitting his philosophy of sharing and conviviality, whilst contributing to the contemporary movement for sustainability. "Great cooking means making the ephemeral unforgettable. It is pure joy to be able to do so in a place as prestigious as the Eiffel Tower."
